House Bill 75—134th General Assembly

Bureau of Workers' Compensation Budget
(FY 2022-FY 2023)

As Introduced
As Passed by the House

May 12, 2021

Executive

As Passed By House

BWCCD24 Power of attorney

No provision.

R.C. 4121.43

Permits the use of a power of attorney allowing an attorney to cash or endorse a check on behalf of a workers' compensation claimant, provided the power of attorney is narrowly tailored to apply to a specific check (current law prohibits using a power of attorney allowing an attorney to cash or endorse a check).

Fiscal effect: None.

BWCCD25 Application for permanent partial disability

No provision.

R.C. 4123.57, Section 8

Prohibits an individual who receives wages in lieu of temporary total disability compensation from filing an application for permanent partial disability compensation until 26 weeks after payment of the wages ends or 26 weeks after the date of injury or occupational disease in absence of temporary total disability payments (current law) or wages in lieu of those payments. Applies to workers' compensation claims arising on or after the provision's effective date.

Fiscal effect: May result in decrease in benefits paid from the State Insurance Fund.

Executive

As Passed By House

BWCCD18 Redetermination of permanent total disability

No provision.

R.C. 4123.58, Section 8

Requires, if the Industrial Commission has denied an application for permanent total disability (PTD) compensation, a claimant to present evidence of new and changed circumstances before the Commission may consider a subsequent PTD application based on the same injury or occupational disease. Applies to workers' compensation claims arising on or after the provision's effective date.

Fiscal effect: May result in increase in benefits paid from the State Insurance Fund.

BWCCD15 Occupational disease statute of limitations

No provision.

R.C. 4123.85, Section 8

Reduces the time period for a workers' compensation claim based on an employee's occupational disease to be filed within one year after disability due to the occupational disease or death of the employee, instead of two years as under current law. Maintains current law with respect to allowing a period longer than one year after the disability began if that time period does not exceed six months after a licensed physician diagnoses the disease as occupational in origin. Applies to workers' compensation claims arising on or after the provision's effective date.

Fiscal effect: None.

Executive

As Passed By House
