BWCCD14 Renaming BWC as the Ohio Department of Workforce Insurance and Safety

R.C. 4121.121, 4121.12, 4121.123, 4121.129, and numerous other sections in Chapters 4121., 4123., and others; Sections 610.10, and 741.10

Changes the name of the Bureau of Workers' Compensation (BWC) to the Department of Workforce Insurance and Safety (ODWIS). Provides that the duties and responsibility under BWC continue under ODWIS. Makes conforming changes to the names of the various offices, boards, and committees overseeing the workers' compensation system.

No provision.

No provision.

Fiscal effect: ODWIS will incur one-time costs to update signs, materials, and its website to reflect the new name.

BWCCD15 Changing method for collecting administrative cost assessments

R.C. 4123.30, 4121.021, 4123.34, 4123.341, 4123.342, 4123.36; Section 741.20

Eliminates a requirement that the ODWIS Director assess state fund employers' administrative costs separately from premiums and requires the Director to factor administrative costs into each state fund employers' workers' compensation premium.

R.C. 4123.30, 4121.021, 4123.34, 4123.341, 4123.342, 4123.36; Section 741.20

Same as the Executive, but refers to BWC rather than ODWIS.

R.C. 4123.30, 4121.021, 4123.34, 4123.341, 4123.342, 4123.36; Section 741.20

Same as the House.

Eliminates two accounts in the State Insurance Fund (SIF) currently used as holding accounts for ODWIS's and OIC's administrative costs collected under the administrative assessment eliminated by the bill.

Same as the Executive, but refers to BWC rather than ODWIS.

Same as the House.

Requires the ODWIS Director to (1) transfer ODWIS's and ODWIS's Board of Directors' administrative costs directly from the SIF to the Workers' Compensation Fund for use by ODWIS and its Board, and (2) transfer OIC's administrative costs directly from the SIF to the Industrial Commission Operating Fund.

Same as the Executive, but refers to BWC rather than ODWIS.

Same as the House.
