

Ohio's population fell slightly between 2020 and 2022

Ohio's Population Growth by County, 2020-2022

Sources: U.S. Census Bureau;
Ohio Department of Development

- The statewide population fell by 42,234 (-0.36%) between 2020 and 2022. The national population growth rate was 0.53% between these years.
 - Ohio's population was 11,756,058 in 2022.
 - Ohio ranked 43rd nationally in population growth rate.
- Twenty counties gained in population between 2020 and 2022. The average population gain in these counties was 1.4%, with a total population gain of 37,844.
 - Delaware County saw population growth of 5.2%, gaining 11,130 people, the largest total gain in the state.
 - Union County experienced the largest percentage gain of 6.0% (3,813).
- Sixty-eight counties saw a loss in population between 2020 and 2022. The average rate of loss in these counties was 0.8%, with a total population loss of 80,078.
 - Athens County lost 5.5% of its population between these years, or 3,414 people.
 - Cuyahoga County experienced the largest total population loss of 26,532 (2.1%).