

Public recreation lands span nearly 1.1 million acres across Ohio

Sources: Ohio Department of Natural Resources (ODNR); U.S. National Park Service; U.S. National Forest Service

- Public recreation lands including state and national parks, state and national forests, state wildlife areas, and state nature preserves encompass nearly 1.1 million acres:
 - ODNR-owned or controlled parks, forests, wildlife areas, and preserves – 816,245 acres.
 - U.S. Forest Service lands (Wayne National Forest) – 244,352 acres.
 - Cuyahoga Valley National Park and several historical and cultural sites overseen by the National Park Service – 34,751 acres.
- Counties with the most state and federal recreation land:
 - Lawrence (82,336 acres), Scioto (75,655 acres), Vinton (52,678 acres), Hocking (52,392 acres), and Muskingum (49,407 acres).
- Counties with the least state and federal recreation land:
 - Crawford (170 acres), Allen (169 acres), Putnam (163 acres), Miami (135 acres), and Van Wert (9 acres).