

Ohio's state employee headcount increased in two successive years following the 2022 low

Source: data.ohio.gov

- As of July 2024, the state employed 51,678 people.
 - Full-time permanent positions: 46,755 (90.5%).
 - Part-time, seasonal, or other temporary roles: 4,923 (9.5%).
 - This is an increase of 2,285 since the multi-year low of 49,393 that occurred in 2022.
- Two state agencies employed nearly one-third of the state workforce in 2024.
 - The Department of Rehabilitation and Correction was the largest state employer, with 11,527 (22.3%) of the total.
 - The Department of Transportation employed 5,294 (10.2%) of the total.
- In contrast, 51 agencies employed fewer than 100 employees, and 35 agencies, mostly boards and commissions, employed fewer than 25 employees.